VRH DIVISIONS

- Open, Cowboy, Amateur & Youth divisions have “full cowhorse run”
- Limited Amateur & Youth:
  - Open to any Amateur/Youth
  - Box/Drive/Box/Drive cow work
- Rookie Amateur & Youth
  - Do not look at AQHA Rookie eligibility in the Leveling section of the rule book. VRH Rookie is different.
  - Refer to the VRH Rookie eligibility (SHW552.4) on page 238 of the 2021 AQHA Rule Book
  - No more than 10 lifetime breed association points
  - No more than $500 in western performance discipline
  - 50 second Boxing cow work, No drag in Trail
  - Awards in SHTX, ASHA, etc do not count for eligibility unless you won money

Cannot cross enter within a division.... ie. You cannot enter Amateur Ranch Trail & Ltd Amateur Ranch Trail

Concurrent Classes Offered in Guthrie:

- Reining
- Cow Work
- Cutting
- Ranch Trail
- Ranch Riding (pattern, not signs)

- Reining
- Cow Work
- Cutting
- Ranch Trail
- Ranch Riding (pattern, not signs)
- Ranch Conformation

Enter both, make one run & you score counts for both.

You pay 2 entry fees & have the opportunity to win 2 sets of awards.

All Arounds use points earned in every class!

So if you want to be in contention, we recommend entering all the classes within that organization.

How Do I Qualify for Next Year?

- March 1 through February 28 qualifying period
- Show 3 times with the same Alliance Member
- Can be in one class or multiple classes...either way will count as a “show”
- If you show with multiple Alliance members (ie. if you go to 2 SHTX shows, and one AQHA VRH show) you need to fill out an Attendance Verification Form to document 3 shows (www.ranchhorse.net)
- AQHA VRH show must be an All Around VRH show (if the show only offers a few VRH classes, it does not count for NRSHA qualification.)

How Do I Qualify for Next Year?

- March 1 through February 28
  - Show 3 times in a specific class to qualify in that class
  - Show 3 times in the All Around to qualify for all classes
- OR QUALIFY BY POINTS --
- Amateur & Youth divisions, Cowboy division, Junior horse division
    - ½ point in a specific class to qualify in that class
    - ½ point in the All Around to qualify for all classes
  - Senior horse division
    - 1 point in a specific class to qualify in that class
    - 1 point in the All Around to qualify for all classes

What counts as a VRH All Around entry?

- Minimum requirements:
  - One cattle class (cutting or cow work)
  - One non-cattle class (reining, ranch trail or ranch riding)
  - Ranch Conformation
- You do not have to enter all 6 classes to be considered an All Around entry.
- If you are trying to win the All Around or earn AQHA VRH points, horses entering all 6 VRH classes will have a significant advantage over those only entering the minimum required for the All Around.

SHTX & VRH CONCURRENT CLASSES

- SHTX Open ↔ VRH Open (Senior, Junior, Cowboy)
- SHTX Non Pro ↔ VRH Amateur
- SHTX Limited & Intermediate ↔ VRH Limited Amateur
- SHTX Novice ↔ VRH Rookie Amateur
- SHTX Youth ↔ VRH Youth & Limited Youth
- SHTX Novice Youth ↔ VRH Rookie Youth

What About SHTX Intermediate Riders Who Are Also VRH Rookie Amateur Eligible?

---

- Enter SHTX classes based on what SHTX division you are eligible for (in this case, Intermediate division)
  - Then enter VRH Rookie Classes
    - Enter the minimum 3 classes to be an All Around VRH Rookie Amateur Entry
      - You will have to make 2 runs (one in SHTX Intermediate draw, the other with the Rookie Amateur draw)
- OR --
- Enter all the VRH Rookie Amateur classes & you will make 2 runs in every class (one in SHTX Intermediate draw, the other with the Rookie Amateur draw)

Even though you are not SHTX Novice eligible, you can show in the VRH Rookie division (as long as you're Rookie eligible). Your score/results will only appear on the VRH Rookie results; you will not appear on the Novice results.

What About SHTX Intermediate Riders Who Are Also VRH Rookie Amateur Eligible?

- Example:
  - Enter the VRH Cutting for your cow class
  - Enter the Conformation
  - Enter one (or more) other non-cow class... Pick a class you want extra practice 😊
    - In this example, you're only making one additional "run" on your horse on show day

-- OR --

- Enter the VRH Rookie Cow work – you'll make 2 cow runs, one for SHTX Intermediate & one in the Rookie class
- Enter the Conformation
- Enter one or more other non-cow class... Pick a class you want extra practice 😊
